"Purity" is the name. You have it when you use the first grade of Paris mill flour. (1t)

Big Tobacco Sale.

THE Courier-Journal thus notes the sale at Louisville Wednesday of 108 hogheads of tobacco offered by Dan Peed, of this city: "The record price of the year and that of several years back was broken by a large sale of fine tobacco this morning. A special lot was offered at the Brown Warehouse, consisting of 108 hds., which went at prices that showed the inherent strength of the market. Of the entire lot the sales of only two hogheads were rejected. The best, a fine cigarette wrapper, brought $29 per 100 lbs., the next best $27, the third $25.50 (a fine spinner), fourth $25, and so on. The whole break averaged $16.75 per 100 lbs. The rejected hogheads brought $10.25 and $13.75 per 100 respectively, but these prices were not in temper with the day and the bids were turned down. It was the largest special sale of fine tobacco that has been held for years and the most successful.

Last Ball at Estill.

MR. R. L. THOMAS writes to THE NEWS that the last ball of the season at Estill will be given to-night, and a fine attendance is expected. The very low rate of four dollars from Friday until Monday morning is offered at the hotel. The fare at the hotel is excellent, the ball room is the finest in Kentucky and music is exceptionally good. Persons leaving Paris on the 11:15 L. & N. train can make connection with a special train (on the R. N. I. & B. road) for Irvine, reaching the Springs in time for supper. This is a delightful outing at a low excursion rate.

Did you know the Paris mill was running night and day and are behind on their orders? So don't wait till you are out to put in your order. (1t)

Two Lady Candidates For State Librarian.

MISS MARGARET INGELS, a talented young lady of this city who made a number of speeches in Kentucky last Fall for Bryan, will in few days announce herself as a candidate for State Librarian, subject to the action of the Democratic Legislative caucus. She is a most deserving young lady and her friends hope that she may win the office.

THE NEWS understands that Miss Celeste Lucas, of Lexington, daughter of the late Capt. J. W. Lucas, will also be a candidate for the same office. She is a capable and worthy young lady.

Winchester Make The Best.

New Goods at Old Prices.

At 12 o'clock on the night of July 28th the Dingley Tariff Bill took effect, and all the imported Dry Goods, Hosiery, Gloves and Notions will be advanced in price by the importers and manufacturers to double what they were under the Wilson Bill. Anticipating this, I bought my Fall and Winter Silks, Woolens and Silk and Wool-Mixed Dress Goods, and have all the new weaves of Drap d'Etes, Coverts, Moscoviettas, Armour Weaves, etc., now in store, all of which will, as long as any of them last, be sold at the old low prices, but when these are gone there will be no more to be purchased in the market at low prices. Everything affected by the new tariff will advance in first hands and we retailers will be compelled to go with the procession, whether agreeable or not. If you will come to my store now you can make a selection of a nice dress cheap, but if you postpone your call, in a short time your present stock will be sold out and you will be left. Remember the latest styles and best qualities of goods can always be found at
